

Woman's Clubs.

The Reviewers' Club.

The last meeting of the Reviewers' club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. C. G. Plummer, and was one of the most interesting of the year. Several musical numbers were given by the hostesses in her best voices and were thoroughly enjoyed by the members. Mrs. C. E. Richards delighted her listeners with a reading from Ruth McHenry Stewart's "Gentleman of the Plush Rocker." The main paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, and consisted of a talk on the recent revival of the fifteenth century morality play which was played in this country during the past season. Mrs. Jones had the privilege of seeing the play at the Elizabethan Stage society of England, which was traveling under the leadership of Henry Irving and was a very lengthy engagement in Steinway hall. The talk on the play was greatly enjoyed.

The programme committee for the coming year reported on the work of the club. The first open meeting will be a musical one and will be held with Mrs. W. A. Nelson.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual meeting. It will be held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Richards, and Mrs. W. F. Adams will review "Lady Kore's Daughter."

The Ladies' Literary Club.

The last meeting for the year of the current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club was held Friday afternoon and a programme of unusual interest was presented.

White was elected chairman of the section for the next year and Mrs. Farnham was elected secretary. Mrs. Farnham gave an able review of the new book by George Woodard Warder, "The Sun of the Sun." The work, while scientific in the main, is calculated to provoke interest and discussion as to the astronomical theories advanced. Mrs. Arthur H. S. Bird gave a brief though critical review of William Dean Howells' "Literature and Life." A paper on "Nature Writers" by Miss A. E. Buchanan was greatly enjoyed. Going back to the times of the dawn and Thoreau, the paper traced the school of nature writers down to the present time and quoted largely from John Burroughs and his opinions as to the work of Ernest Thompson Seton and the more modern school.

State Federation Meeting.

The October meeting of the U. F. W. C. promises to be one of great interest to the club women of the state. The news that Mrs. Dimes S. F. Denison, of New York, the president of the G. F. W. C., will be present on the second day will doubtless bring to the city large numbers of club women from out of town. A programme is under way, although not yet ready for publication. A meeting of the programme committee was held last Wednesday at the home of the chairman, Mrs. C. H. McMahon, Mrs. Wedgewood, Mrs. Clawson and Dr. Pratt being present.

Numerous subjects of special interest will be discussed and the three days of the convention, Oct. 1, 2 and 3, will be busy ones.

The Poets' Round Table.

The April meeting of the Poets' Round Table was held Monday afternoon with Mrs. William H. Dale. The poet for the day was Father Ryan, and a sketch of his life was given by Mrs. Ravina, who was chairman of the day. Many of the shorter poems of the strong southern writer were read by the different members. The next meeting will be the last Monday in May, and the poet will be Caroline E. Norton. The club will meet with Mrs. Rawlins and Mrs. Dickert will be the chairman.

Club Notes.

At the last meeting of the home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club Mrs. Hutchinson was re-elected as chairman of the section. Mrs. Ledward M. Bailey was elected assistant chairman and Mrs. Buswell secretary.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Council of Jewish Women will be held tomorrow at 5 o'clock in the E. B. room.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Republican club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Jones, 231 South Third East street, tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

There will be a special business meeting of the Club of the Home of the president, Mrs. Selden I. Clawson, Tuesday afternoon.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club is fortunate in securing Mrs. E. C. Kealey for its chairman next year.
